A historical map of Gothenburg, Sweden, showing the city's layout and the Göta Canal. The canal is highlighted in red, winding through the city and connecting to the sea. The map includes various landmarks, such as the harbor and surrounding areas. The text "Göta kanals sträckning" is overlaid on the map, indicating the route of the canal.

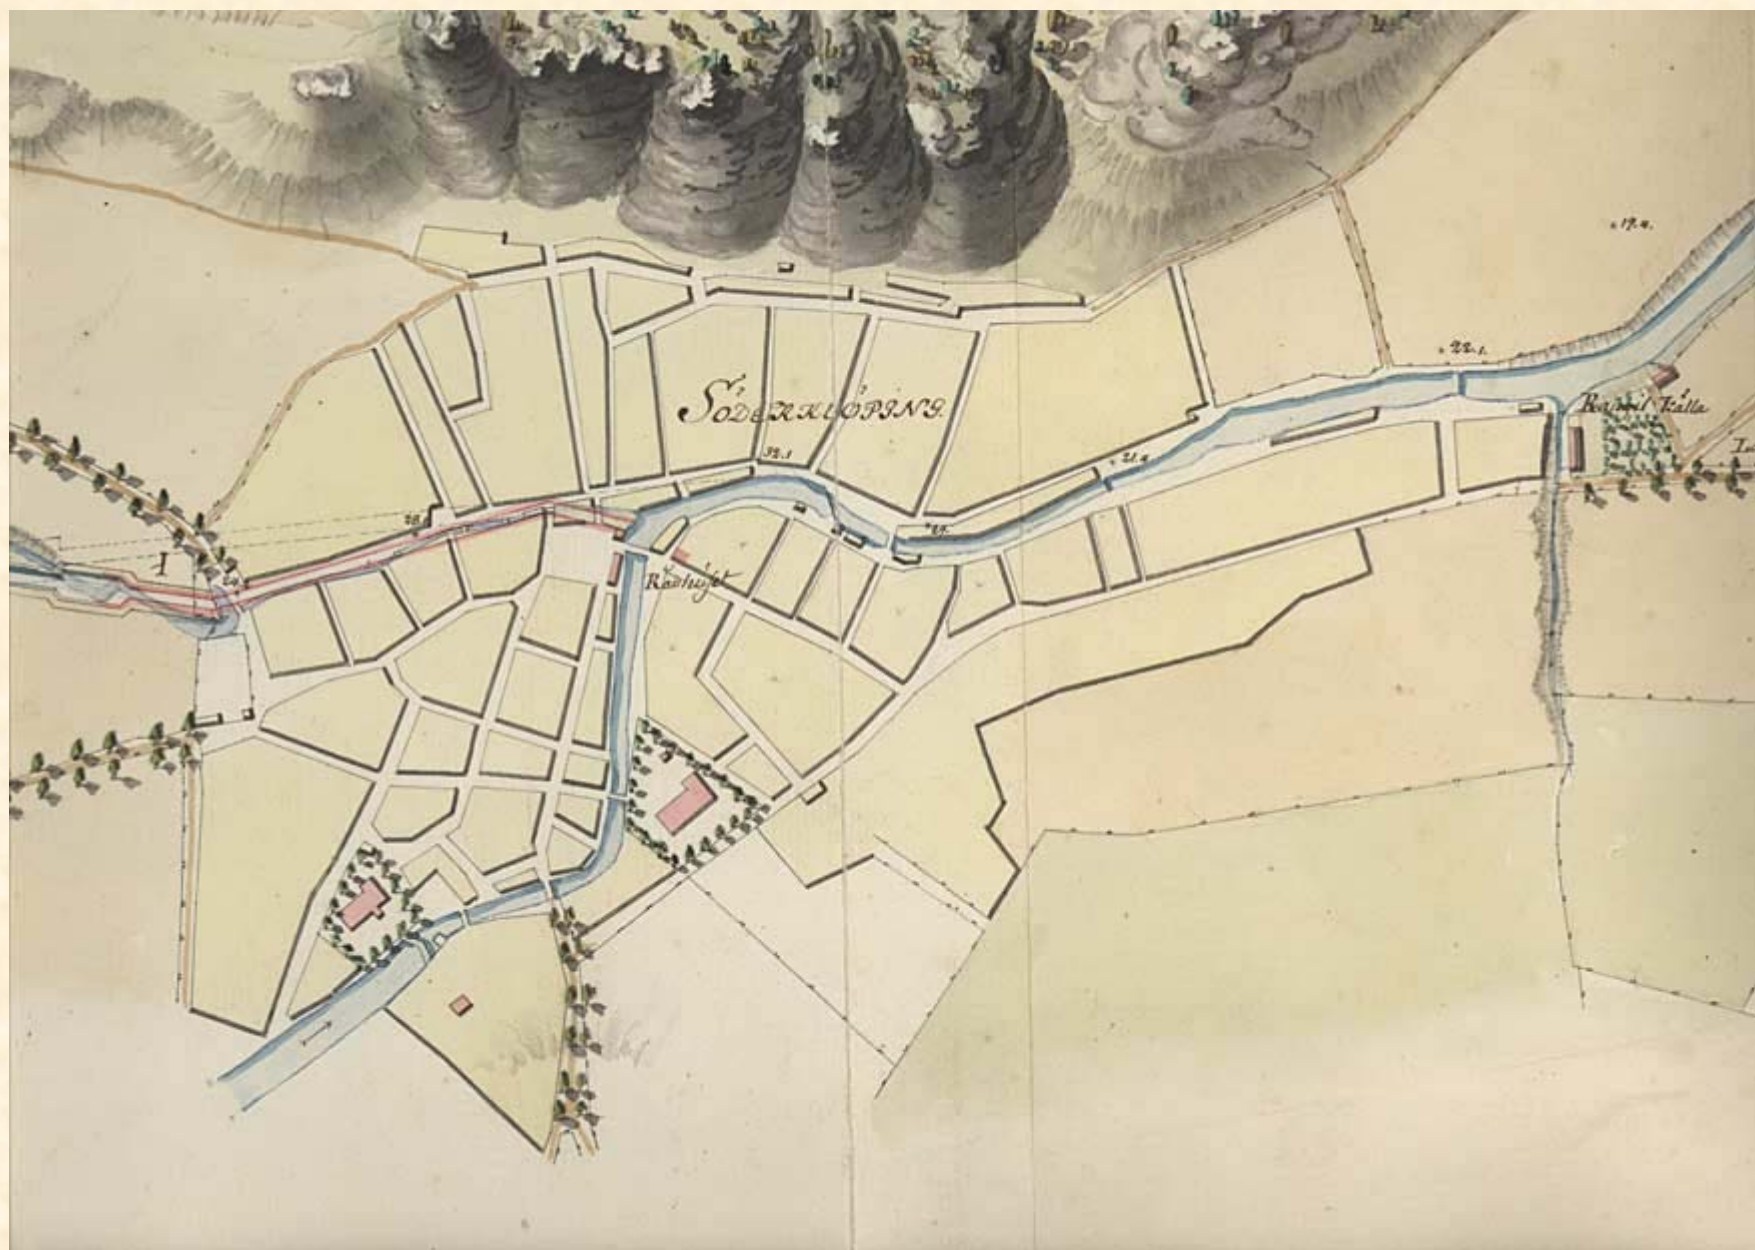

Göta kanals sträckning

A historical map of a town, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The map shows a river flowing through the town, with several bridges crossing it. The town is surrounded by a wall, and there are several large buildings and a church. The surrounding area is mostly open fields, with some forested hills in the background. The text "Visualisering då" is overlaid on the map in a large, black, serif font.
